1. Preface

The photo of the white stone on the cover, both sides. I found this striking white stone in a huge pile of stones of various shapes and colors washed up on a beach. I got hungry on the beach and ate some alfalfa flowers, very satisfying.

I did not draw or do any Photoshop to these photos. There is an image on the front and on the back.

“Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches: to those who prove victorious I will give some hidden manna and a white stone, with a new name written on it, known only to the person who receives it.” – Revelation 2: 17

Ever since I was an infant, I’ve been in awe of and curious about everything. The beauty of life, the mysteries of God, refractions of light, water, motions, the people I met, seasons, colors, abstract reasonings, patterns, storms, insects, stories, lore, rules, even computer programming... everything.

I didn’t feel that I knew God, but I Loved everything and everyone I encountered. I still do. Passionate, fiery, curious, respectful, Love.

When I was 5, what really impressed me was a simple page that was handed to me by my Sunday school teacher that read only, “God Is Love.” (1 Jn 4:8).

Jehovah says he deeply treasures a memory of when I was 7 years old, ice skating by myself on a peaceful, snowing, quiet evening. It was a beautiful, serene and magical night. Meditating while skating, I sang a new song of pure Love for God. This is the foundation of our relationship.

He started talking to me audibly in 2002 I was 23 years old. I remember everything. I was told then that I was psychotic and had schizophrenia, and it is true. But what the doctors call a hallucination is specifically hearing or seeing something that other people can't hear. That doesn't make it untrue or wrong, just unexplainable. I believe schizophrenics have a direct line to the subconscious mind, they may not understand the truth, they may be fed lies by deceiving spirits, but they didn't create that hallucination, they witnessed it. They may believe their hallucinations and run rampant with them, which is dangerous, because it takes a lot of education and experience to learn whose words to trust.

I've read and compared many books on all sorts of topics, with a critical mind, which is crucial. Even the Bible, despite what some evangelicals say, was a book written by men. It's important to consider everything, and question everything, knowing that what you read or hear is the opinion of one spirit, and possibly meant to lead you astray from the truth. Some writers were led astray or had intention to lead the masses astray. It's important to question everything, authors can be liars too. However, I'm sharing my experience honestly, I pray it helps you find faith in I AM and the Holy Trinity of Aramaia.

Love and Light,

Elainia (Elaine Nicol)

2. What is prayer?

Prayer is many things, but for the purpose of this book, is asking God for something you want, in hopes that he/she grants your wish.

Yeshua taught, ask anything in my name, and you shall receive it. Knock, and the door will be opened. He taught the Our Father prayer in Matthew 6. For more details see

<https://iampeacemaker.ca/how-to-pray>

Yet for the meaning of “asking in someone’s name”, means you are asking on their behalf, so it better be respectful to whomever’s name you are using. For example ending a prayer in Jesus’ name means you shouldn’t ask for anything he wouldn’t fully approve of.

It helps to think of what he stands for when you ask. This is the purpose of his new name, on the cover of this book, the inherent image on the white stone. (See Rev. 2: 17 for context). I call the image “The Morning Lamb”, and Adonai likes the new name. Adonai, the Morning Lamb, WAS Yeshua 3000 years ago, as he tells me, it’s only been 2000 some years since the Romans started their new calendar AD.

3. Setting a Foundation for an Answered Prayer

Simply sending your wishes into to Universe or at God without a foundation of faith, hope, and Love, is likely going to get your prayer ignored.

Why else would he teach us to pray, “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, establish with us your kingdom, your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth?”

He teaches us to pray for alignment with His will, and for His will to be done. This may be counter-intuitive if you’ve never read the gospels. He’s not a genie, nor a wish-granter, although he answers prayers if they are for the greater good. Unless our wishes align with his greater purpose, and he may not grant our wishes in our desired time-frame or in the way we expect. Greater ARE his purposes. However great our insight, greater is his oversight of all.

Who is the Holy Trinity of Aramaia?

Adonai said to me that HE himself came to earth as Yeshua, which counters the narrative of the Bible (where he is labeled as Jesus Christ), but the Yeshua name better fits with the Jewish prophecies. JHVH works with I Am mostly, helping humankind, and the Holy Spirit is the Adonai, Yeshua, Holy Spirit, Masculine/Feminine, the Father/Mother/Birther. Yahweh is the third God of the Holy Trinity, and was also heavily involved on earth in prior millennia. They are real gods, and work together with heaven, but the highest God, the I AM God of the Jews is Adonai, came to fulfill his own prophecies and to put an end to the endless blood sacrifices in the temples, which became abominations to him.

Yeshua IS Adonai. Yeshua is the TRUE Lamb who died to end all blood sacrifices.

Jesus was the name ascribed to Yeshua so that the Romans could control the narrative, after slaughtering all his loyal apostles and many other loyal followers. If the Roman Catholic Church didn't republish the documents of the Holy Bible, effectively neutering the true Gospels, then explain what happened the Council of Trent. They also destroyed Israel and booted out the Jews in the second century AD. And you wonder why the confusion of the Palestinians when we say this was the Jewish people's homeland.

They don't even explain where the doctrine of the "Triune God" came from. The Trinity of "Father, Son, and Holy Spirit", is not mentioned anywhere in the Bible, from which they read at every Sunday at "Holy" mass, implying that their faith is based on the Bible, and likely assuming no one will bother to read through it on their own, or figure out how much important content is truly missing.

Although I was raised Roman Catholic, I read the Bible at my own encouragement and noticed many obvious contradictions.

Like Yeshua saying to the people (As if the deacons would dare to read this scripture out loud), "The scribes and the Pharisees occupy the chair of Moses. You must therefore do and observe what they tell you; but do not be guided by what they do, since they do not practice what they preach. They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on people's shoulders, but will they lift a finger to move them? Not they! Everything they do is done to attract attention, like wearing broader headbands and longer tassels, like wanting to take the place of honor at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues, being greeted respectfully in the market squares and having people call them Rabbi. You, however, must not allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, since you have only one Master, and you are all brothers. You must call no one on earth your father, since you have only one Father, and he is in heaven. Nor must you allow yourselves to be called teachers, for you have only one Teacher, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Anyone who raises himself up will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be raised up. ‘Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut up the kingdom of Heaven in people’s faces, neither going in yourselves nor allowing others to go who want to. Alas for you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! ... You travel over sea and land to make a simple convert, and anyone who becomes one you make twice as fit for hell as you are.” (Matthew 23:1-15) (Notice verse 14 is missing from the Bible entirely. Guilty conscience, anyone?)

This was the first idiosyncrasy I noticed, being taught to call priests, in reverence, Father, and to confess to them every sin, being directed by this priest on how to be forgiven. This is counter to what the Bible teaches. Yeshua said to pray in secret, The Holy Trinity of Aramaia is there for all who call.

Also, the second commandment of Exodus 20 states that “you shall not make a likeness of anything in heaven above or on earth beneath or in the waters under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them.”

Yet as a child in Sunday mass I was literally told to stand in line to kiss the feet of a statue. I did as the priest told, and still today feel dirty that I was put in that position. And as an altar server, I was instructed to kneel every time I walked past the crucifix. Now that I’ve read that, it feels so wrong. That statue did not die on the cross, it was an image that was created out of wood or plaster. Yeshua died on the cross as prophesied and should be respected. Not this morbid statue hanging front and centre of the building. They are trying to keep us in reverence for stone, wood, and a spirit of fear that if we don’t listen we will be punished. That’s what the deceiver does.

I AM is we are. We are all pieces of I AM. I AM is our collective consciousness, personified. Adonai arrived on earth in human form in the demigod version of himself, as his own Son of a human woman. Through Mary came Yeshua. He came peacefully, but those who opposed him were far from peaceful, they were power-hungry money mongers who denied the truth from the masses to keep them in fear of them and of God, and hence, depending on them for our salvation.

In truth, I AM is the source. I AM is intelligent and loving, and wants a relationship with humans, individually. The Holy Trinity wants us to pray important questions and wait for an answer. They want us to develop spiritually and help others, as we are spiritual beings created out of their light energy, spirits trapped in frames of flesh, blood, and bone, with which to experience life during our time on earth.

4. What pleases I AM?

Faith, Hope, and greater than that, Love. Believe it or not, He likes humor too. If you get to know him, he can take teasing, and will tease for fun. We've shared many great belly laughs, life and love can be fun too. It's important not to take life too seriously.

As far as morals and ethics are considered, the next 3 paragraphs say a lot about what is important to Him.

“When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: sexual vice, impurity, and sensuality, the worship of false gods and sorcery; antagonisms and rivalry, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels, disagreements, factions and malice, drunkenness, orgies and all such things. And about these, I tell you now as I have told you in the past, that people who behave in these ways will not inherit the kingdom of God. – Galatians 5: 19-21

On the other hand, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness, and self-control; no law can touch such things as these. All who belong to (Yeshua) have crucified self with all its passions and its desires. Since we are living by the Spirit, let our behavior be guided by the Spirit and let us not be conceited or provocative and envious of one another. - Gal 5: 22-26

Brothers, even if one of you is caught doing something wrong, those of you who are spiritual should set that person right in a spirit of gentleness; and watch yourselves that you are not put to the test in the same way. Carry each other's burdens; that is how to keep the law of Christ.” – Gal 6: 1-2

5. Crucified self? What does that mean?

Repenting, or turning from, that which hurts others, sin, and being baptized, dying to sinful ways and being resurrected in the Spirit. In Buddhism, dying to self is the same as letting go of ego, attaining enlightenment by dying to worldly ways.

If you are unsure of your faith or hope in this, a good way to gain understanding is studying and applying the 12 steps of A.A., a powerful set of instructions to get right with Yeshua in the same spirit of his teachings.

Dying to self is not possible by man alone but is possible with God. Healing our hearts is not possible with man but is possible with God. We search ourselves, admit our faults, and make amends with those we have hurt, except when to do so would injure them or others. We keep searching ourselves, and dying to ourselves means only praying for HIS will for us and the power to carry that out.

1. We admitted we were powerless over addiction – that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.

11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood him, praying only for knowledge of his will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps, we tried to carry this message to other addicts, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

This is how we become members of the Kingdom of God. He sacrificed his life so . Believe me when I say that is a terrible, painful memory for him. If you deny his sacrifice, and willfully continue denying your errors and Spiritual healing, is it any wonder that he ignores your prayer? The Morning Lamb, Adonai, wants you to have faith in him by accepting his sacrifice as your own, loving him, submitting to the purity of the Holy Spirit.

6. Eradicating Fear

Fear is a mechanism to protect ourselves from annihilation and/or suffering. It is also a response that we can choose to control.

Evil people of this earth, patriarchs who love and serve money, have wrongly claimed to hold the keys to heaven, that you can't go unless you are served their host and wine, confess to the priest your sins, pay your tithes, and worship how they tell you to. They do not encourage you to read the Bible, but say if you do what they tell you, you will go to heaven and not hell, but if you don't listen, you may instead go to hell or Purgatory.

There is even alien telepathic technology that allows these people to speak to your subconscious, at least that is the experience of mediums, empaths, and schizophrenics, me included. This technology is on earth, and is called 5D Consciousness, it's out there, and it's being discussed publicly all over the web and social media. The Vatican and other secular governments have access to this technology so they can listen to people's minds and send messages directly to peoples' subconscious. The weapons of mass control are lies and fear sent straight to everyone's subconscious minds, that most can't audibly hear, just a few can hear.

Yet Yeshua didn't want us to be fearful. He died, yes by the government of the time, but voluntarily cooperated, because of his love for humanity, and what his death would mean FOR humanity. Can you see how making your conscience clear and claiming his crucifixion as your own, with repentance and in all humility, can put you right with Adonai, Yahweh, and JHVH, and eradicate your fear of annihilation?

Adonai/Yeshua is a real God. There are natural laws to how the supernatural works. He came to sacrifice himself, to conquer nature, to make himself available without more blood sacrifices. He made a relationship with him a simple matter of choice and free will.

God is not a control-freak monster craving the loyalty of all people. He seeks to help those who suffer, to alleviate their spiritual pain. He seeks repentant sinners and innocent people who are tormented spiritually. Demons are real and attack those who may be blessed, working hard to distract people from the truth.

There are other places for you to go when you die. Not accepting his sacrifice doesn't mean eternal torment, that is a lie of the Catholic church. You are free to believe what you want, the Holy Trinity appreciates free will. But he makes a way to his heaven by opening the door of his own sacrifice.

“Come to me, all you who labor and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.” – Matthew 11: 28-30

How do you eradicate fear? Simple, don't be afraid.

What is not possible by men is made possible with God.

7. How to pray in this new name.

When you feel your need for this thing, imagine the outcome happening WHILE picturing that image around you, being there in your mind and soul, becoming a part of it. You will find the image of the Lamb with the stars is pure and holy, you cannot wish evil while holding that image in your mind.

It's no different than praying in I AM, just a little more structured and easier to comprehend.

Adonai is the Morning Lamb, the holy sacrifice who willingly sacrificed his life at the hands of the Romans because his ultimate truth would set us free, becoming part of the Kingdom of God, accepting his sacrifice as pure, and perfect.

If you know Love, you are a part of him. God is Love. As we are currently droplets of water ultimately belonging to the ocean, seeking our way home, when we get there, we ARE the ocean.

Picture the Morning Lamb image from the cover, the one from the white stone, throughout your consciousness as you make your petition. Wish for something he'd be proud of you for. Use the Morning Lamb for good, considering what would he want, establish what he would want.

Your imagination is a powerful tool of creation. Send him your wish, in his image. Wait for his answer. Be patient, be confident. If you feel yourself making a decision, it is likely his Holy Spirit helping. Not all have "ears to hear". Take action. Keep picturing yourself receiving, stay faithful and positive. Remember, he exists outside time and space. He will bring your wish to fruition, in his own time, because he knows the best time for his will to happen, but he will make it happen.

8. Envision yourself having received your prize.

So you want to be on that mountaintop. Say to Him, "I AM on that mountaintop!". Imagine you are there. Keep taking action to get there, envisioning yourself in completion. Ask Him for insight if you need help getting there. Fulfill your plan. Keep saying "I AM on that mountaintop!"

Be persistent, keep petitioning Adonai this way.

9. Living the journey, not the destination.

I AM might bless your wish with fruition right away, or years down the road. But if you keep asking, it will be given. Just remember to participate. I AM means you are. If you imagine yourself at your destination, you are there in your mind, and you are taking steps towards completion.

However, if you want to be happy, you must be happy WHILE achieving. Life is about setting goals, not completing them. If you are miserable because your goal didn't instantly manifest and you have to work for it, you are turning people off and making completion of your task more difficult. Stay positive and work for it.

Imagine yourself strong, ask the Morning Lamb for strength.

Imagine yourself achieving, ask the Morning Lamb to assist you to accomplish your goal.

Stay humble, ask him to help. He'll put people in your path to help you and give you strength when you need it, decide to give Him the glory. He'll appreciate that.

Goals are sometimes not reached, but keep working for your life to have purpose. Life is never guaranteed. No man knows the hour, so don't base your happiness on reaching your destination, enjoy the journey.

A goal is like seed. Plant it, water it, tend it, don't lose hope, keep watering and tending it as needed. It takes time to bear fruit.

You got this.

Love,

Elainia
